

FEBRUARY CBT ENGLISH, CLASS 11

ANSWERS

Q.NO	QUESTIONS	ANSWERS
UNSEEN PASSAGE FOR COMPREHENSION
1	(a) Choose the most appropriate statement to complete the sentence. The habit of fidgeting in a grown up person is	(III) Not a pleasant sight and a distraction (clearly mentioned in the passage)
2	(b) The person who visualizes a newer way of controlling fidgeting is	(II) Dr James Buyer, a London neurologist. (mentioned in the passage)
3	(c) Select the antonym for the word ' gruelling ' ,in para 3.	Facile Gruelling means extremely tiring and demanding the suitable antonym to this is Facile which means effortless or easy.
STANZA FOR COMPREHENSION
4	(a) What does the "practical-minded men" imply about the ministers' attitude?	they were realistic and practical The word "practical" means of or concerned with the actual doing or use of something rather than with theory or ideas. Realistic means likely to succeed or be effective in real circumstances. Based on these clues , we can say that the phrase "practical minded men" implies that their attitude was realistic and practical.

5	(b) Which of the following headlines best captures the central idea of the extract?	The Irony of a Royal Proclamation and a Practical Solution The irony of a royal proclamation and a practical solution, is the correct answer because it captures both the irony and practicality involved in the extract. it shows how the ministers use a royal proclamation in the name of the dead king to find a practical solution for the succession problem.
6	(c) Here the word "Heralds" means....	official messenger bringing news on the basis of the extract, we need to focus on the communication aspect of the word. This word or phrase captures the idea that something or someone that is heraldic is conveying or announcing information or event: or predicting something that will occur. hence, the correct option "official messenger bringing news" is the most suitable one.
QUESTION AND ANSWER
7	(a) What sort of principles seem to thrive in the state? (The Tale of Melon City)	Laissez faire The principle of laissez faire is the non-intervention of Government rules, regulations, privileges, tarrifs, etc. People who wants absolute freedom and minimal interference in the day to day life of citizens

8	Do you think that the King took his 'notion of justice' too far? (The Tale of Melon City)	Yes, he lost his life in the process In the case of the King, it can be argued that he took his notion of justice too far, ultimately leading to his own downfall. There are several reasons why this can be seen as the correct answer. Obsession with justice: The King's obsession with justice was evident in his actions throughout the POEM.
9	(c) What is the genre of "The Tale of the Melon City"?	Both (B) and (C) The characters, their actions, and the situations they find themselves in all contribute to the humor in the poem. the poem is filled with situational irony as the king is supposed to be a respected figure in society, but is hanged in the name of justice and verbal irony - as long live the king the king is dead adds layer of irony to the poem.
10	(d) You have been asked to write a speech for a sanitary awareness campaign. What tone should you maintain while writing the speech?	Mixture of facts with stories Stories and facts are necessary partners; they are the companions that walk your audience through the journey your speech takes them on. Facts make stories more convincing and stories make facts more entertaining. Without facts, your story does not empower your audience to take action.