

Kendriya Vidyalaya regional office Bhopal

CBT -HISTORY February 2024

1. The Self-Strengthening Movement in China during the 19th century aimed to:

- a) Embrace Western culture and values
- b) Restore the imperial examination system
- c) Modernize China through a blend of traditional Chinese values and Western technology
- d) Reject foreign influence and adopt isolationist policies

Feedback for correct answers

- c) Modernize China through a blend of traditional Chinese values and Western technology

2. The Meiji Restoration took place in which country during the late 19th century?

- a) China
- b) India
- c) Japan
- d) Egypt

Feedback for correct answers

Japan

3. The Japanese term "fukoku kyohei" during the Meiji period translates to:

- a) "Cultural Revolution"
- b) "Restoration of the Emperor"
- c) "Rich country, strong army"
- d) "Open Door Policy"

Feedback for correct answers

c) "Rich country, strong army"

4. The "Meiji Restoration" in Japan aimed to:

- a) Reinstate the shogunate system
- b) Modernize Japan through industrial reforms
- c) Restore the imperial power and modernize the country
- d) Establish a socialist government

Feedback for correct answers

- c) Restore the imperial power and modernize the country

5. The "Open Door Policy" in China aimed to:

- a) Promote international trade and prevent colonization by Western powers
- b) Establish a socialist economic system
- c) Isolate China from the rest of the world
- d) Adopt a policy of strict isolationism

Feedback for correct answers

- a) Promote international trade and prevent colonization by Western powers

6. The "Self-Strengthening Movement" in China emphasized the promotion of:

- a) Traditional Confucian values and cultural practices
- b) Western-style democracy and constitutional monarchy
- c) Industrialization and military reforms
- d) Isolationism and xenophobia

Feedback for correct answers

- c) Industrialization and military reforms

7. The "Meiji Constitution" of 1889 established:

- a) A parliamentary system with an elected prime minister
- b) A hereditary monarchy with absolute power
- c) A military dictatorship under the shogunate
- d) A federal republic with multiple states

Feedback for correct answers

- b) A hereditary monarchy with absolute power

8. The "Meiji Restoration" brought an end to which period of Japanese history?

- a) Tokugawa Period
- b) Heian Period
- c) Sengoku Period
- d) None

Feedback for correct answers

- a) Tokugawa Period

9. The Meiji leaders' successful efforts in abolishing the Tokugawa shogunate and restoring imperial rule are known as:

- a) Satsuma Rebellion
- b) Meiji Restoration
- c) Battle of Ueno

d) Russo-Japanese War

Feedback for correct answers

b) Meiji Restoration

10. The samurai (the warrior class) were the ruling elite and served:

a) Shoguns

b) Daimyo

c) Both a) and b)

d) None of the above

Feedback for correct answers

c) Both a) and b)