

CBT OCTOBER 2023

Class -XI (English)

Answers with explanations

Q.1	Whose mummy the author is talking about?
Ans	D. Tut's
Explanation	It was Tutankhaten's (Tut's) mummy. His was the first mummy that was studied by scientists. He was the last ruler of his dynasty.
Q.2	What is the meaning of 'resurrection' in the extract?
Ans	B. Revival
Explanation	Resurrection means revival. Some of world's civilizations believe in resurrection after death. They believe that there would be a doom's day and everyone would be judged for his deeds; and would be rewarded accordingly. Egyptians also believe in it.
Q.3	When was Tut's tomb discovered?
Ans	C.1922
Explanation	In 1922, for the first time Tut's mummy was dug out and studied by scientists. A British archaeologist named Howard Carter studied Tut's mummy under a CT scanner .
Q.4	Who discovered Tut's tomb?
Ans	D.Howard Carter
Explanation	Howard Carter was a British archaeologist who is known for studying Tut's mummy for the first time. He dug out the mummy with great difficulty and studied it under a CT scanner.
Q.5	What is the antonym of 'complete'?
Ans.	D.Incomplete
Explanation	Antonym of complete is incomplete.
Q.6is the poem of the Earth?
Ans.	B.Rain
Explanation	Rain compares itself with the poem.it says that it is the poem of the Earth. As a poem eventually returns to its originator, so does the rain.
Q.7	'impalpable' means
Ans.	D.Something that cannot be touched
Explanation	Impalpable is synonymous with intangible; something that can not be perceived by senses.
Q.8	D.'And who are you?' who said this?
Ans.	The poet
Explanation	It was the poet who asked this question. It was addressed to the rain.
Q.9	To whom the question was addressed to
Ans	B.The rain
Explanation	It was addressed to the rain. The poet asked rain as to who it was.
Q.10	Where does the rain rise to?
Ans	D.To heaven
Explanation	The rain originating from the Earth rises to heaven and eventually returns to the Earth.
Q.11	Debate is a formal discussion.
Ans	A.True
Explanation	Debate is a formal discussion wherein there are two speakers. One speaks for the motion whereas the other speaks against the motion.
Q.12	Debate is only in favour of a viewpoint
Ans	B.False

Explanation	Debate is two-sided wherein there are two speakers. One speaks for the motion whereas the other speaks against the motion.
Q.13	An ideal debate....
Ans.	A.True
Explanation	A debate should have four paragraphs. First one for salutation/introduction, second one for problem, third one for explanation/ solution and the fourth one for conclusion.
Q.14	A debate has.....
Ans	A.True
Explanation	A debate should have four paragraphs. First one for salutation/introduction, second one for problem, third one for explanation/ solution and the fourth one for conclusion.
Q.15	A debate's main purpose is...
Ans.	A.True
Explanation	Debate is a formal discussion wherein there are two speakers. One speaks for the motion whereas the other speaks against the motion.
Q.16	Vijay usually...
Ans	C.gets
Explanation	As Vijay is a third person singular subject so it will take present tense form of the verb along with 's/es'
17	Does your father....
Ans	B.shaves
Explanation	As 'father' is a third person singular subject so it will take present tense form of the verb along with 's/es'
18	They don't...
Ans	A. play
Explanation	As 'they' is a third person plural subject so it will take present (base) form of the verb.
19	Prashant always...
Ans	B.reads
Explanation	As 'Prashant' is a third person singular subject so it will take present tense form of the verb along with 's/es'
20	Don't they ...
Ans	A.go
Explanation	As 'they' is a third person plural subject so it will take present (base) form of the verb.